Every year, FOCUS magazine presents Germany's top business law firms, which are determined in an online survey of lawyers in business law firms and companies. This year, the business magazine, in cooperation with the research institute FactField, asked 2,641 lawyers in business law firms and in-house lawyers about the expertise of their colleagues and clients. The lawyers were asked to name particularly recommendable commercial law firms in various fields of law. From these recommendations, a list of 450 top commercial law firms, covering a total of 25 areas of expertise, was determined.
