GÖRG advises mantro on the sale of mantro product studio to Creative Dock Group

GÖRG Partnerschaft von Rechtsanwälten mbB, led by Munich partner Sebastian Frech, provided comprehensive legal advice to Munich-based mantro GmbH on the sale of its venture-building unit mantro product studio GmbH to the Creative Dock Group.

mantro develops strategy and technology for digital transformation and supports CxOs in tapping digital potential. Both SMEs and corporations such as Vorwerk, AUDI, Giesecke+Devrient, LEG, Kuka and Bosch rely on mantro's strengths as a think tank, innovation ecosystem and company builder.

mantro product studio GmbH is a business unit specialising in the development of innovative products and services and their successful market launch. It is particularly active in the manufacturing, energy and FMCG sectors.

With the sale of mantro product studio GmbH, mantro strengthens its original company building approach and creates growth potential for the joint ventures with its customers within the DACH region. At the same time, the co-operation with the Creative Dock Group ensures that customers benefit from a larger, international infrastructure for the development of innovative products and services and their successful market launch.

A team led by GÖRG partner Sebastian Frech provided mantro GmbH with comprehensive legal advice on the sale. Sebastian Frech advises national and international technology companies on M&A and venture capital.
